VERSE 1

When you look behind the curtain nothing is certain they hide the truth with their media perversions Their speeches belie the facts are obfuscated
All of their lies are premeditated

CHORUS

Their machines print the green and control the guillotine
Their machines print the green choking on their nicotine
Their machines print the green
hey fetch my limousine
Their machines print the green
don't forget the Vaseline

VERSE 2

Lose your home to foreclosure Lose your job when you get older Spend your taxes on illegals in your classes Protest in the street unjust, unfair
you can have your last meal in the electric chair

Nostradamus Aristotle
Jesus drinking the last bottle
These gods of men saw beginning to end
They felt the wrath of Caesar Abuse of power
As the Church and State grow stronger by the hour

BRIDGE

Big Bro is gonna take everything Big bro makes those church bells ring Big bro make the fat lady sing
Big Bro is gonna take everything
